THE PIOCHE DAILY RECORD James Parton says that he has known ladies in whom the instinct of decoration was so strong that if they were told that they must be hanged in the presence of twenty thousand persons to-morrow, their first thought would be, "Have I a proper hanging dress?" The heaviest brain on record was found in the skull of a London bricklayer, who could neither read nor write. Its weight was 59 ounces. This will be gall and bitterness to the phrenologists. As Indian man is naming his children after the New England States. Rhode Island is the last. It weighs three pounds THE poetry has been taken out of the old South Church, Boston, and the Postoffice is going in. A young lady of New Lisbon, Ohio, took her lover home in a wheelbarrow.
